

Privacy Consent and Financial Service Guide

We understand that you would like to receive information in relation to Credit Suisse's financial and banking services and products.

The personal data provided by you to Credit Suisse will be used by us to provide you communications; materials or invitations in relation to the abovementioned services and/or products, including by electronic means such as email, fax and telephone. Please also note that calls to and from Credit Suisse may be monitored and recorded for purposes including compliance and service quality control.

The linked Credit Suisse Australia Privacy and Credit Reporting policy provides more detail about the different purposes for which we collect your information and how we will manage your information including your rights to request access and correction of your personal information: <https://www.credit-suisse.com/au/en/legal/credit-suisse-australia-privacy-and-credit-reporting-policy.html>.

We will assume such consent to send you communications is indefinite up until you request to stop receiving such communications. Should you not want us to use your personal data for these purposes, please let us know by contacting the signatory below or the privacy officer on csau.privacyofficer@credit-suisse.com

As a leading global wealth manager, Credit Suisse is dedicated to serving private banking clients and managing their assets to help them achieve their financial goals in the most effective way.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned who will be pleased to assist you.

You may access an electronic copy of the Bank's Financial Services Guide (FSG) on our website at <https://www.credit-suisse.com/media/assets/apac/docs/financial-services-guide.pdf> or by using the QR Code below.

If you would like a physical copy and do not already have one, please ask your relationship manager for a copy.

