Disclosure Pursuant to Article 21 of the Swiss Stock Exchange Act: Credit Suisse Group's own holdings of equity securities below 15%

On July 28, 2008, Credit Suisse Group's own holdings of equity securities fell below the disclosure threshold of 15% of voting rights entered in the Commercial Register.

Credit Suisse Group's total own holdings on July 28, 2008, amounted to 160,160,830 equity securities, which corresponds to 14.39% of voting rights. This comprised 97,304,079 registered shares (8.74% of voting rights), 43,228,522 share acquisition rights (3.88%) and 19,628,229 granted share sale rights (1.76%). The sale positions corresponded to 52,504,130 voting rights (4.72%).

The Group's own holdings fell below the disclosure threshold as a result of the cancellation of 49.7 million registered shares acquired in conjunction with the share buyback program. The cancellation of these shares was approved at the Annual General Meeting on April 25, 2008, and recorded in the Commercial Register of the Canton of Zurich on July 28, 2008.

This disclosure is made in accordance with Article 21 of the Swiss Stock Exchange Act.
US or global economic downturn in 2008 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration of subprime and other real estate markets;
- further adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of structured credit products or other credit-related exposures or of monoline insurers;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Form 20-F Item 3 - Key Information - Risk Factors.