Walter Steinmann and Kurt Lüscher Join the Advisory Board of Credit Suisse Energy Infrastructure Partners AG

Zurich, June 1, 2017 With Dr. Walter Steinmann and Kurt Lüscher, the Advisory Board of Credit Suisse Energy Infrastructure Partners AG (CSEIP) gained two proven energy industry experts. In February 2017, CSEIP established its Advisory Board with a network of renowned current and former energy industry specialists and politicians.

As the former head of both the Swiss Federal Office of Energy (SFOE) and the Office for Economy and Labor of the Canton of Solothurn, Dr. Walter Steinmann has a wide and unique network within the Swiss energy industry, as well as in-depth expertise regarding political and regulatory matters. He is also the Chairman of the European Energy Award association, the former Chairman of the Management Commission of the Decommissioning and Disposal Fund, and a former member of the Governing Board of the International Energy Agency (IEA) in Paris.

Kurt Lüscher brings extensive expertise in the field of energy supply. During his time as CEO of Energie 360°, one of the leading Swiss energy providers in the Canton of Zurich, he successfully boosted the company's sustainability to meet the future challenges of the energy sector. Before that, Kurt Lüscher held various management positions in the field of telecommunications in Switzerland, including at Swisscom, as well as abroad. As the Chairman of Erdgas Ostschweiz AG & OpenEP AG and a Swissgas Board of Directors member, he continues to play an important role in the Swiss gas sector.

Credit Suisse Energy Infrastructure Partners

CSEIP is an independent investment manager within Credit Suisse Asset Management that focuses on utilizing institutional capital in the European energy infrastructure. In Switzerland, CSEIP manages the CSA Energy Infrastructure Switzerland, which focuses solely on Swiss energy infrastructure and is exclusively available to Swiss pension funds. It thus enables institutional investors to participate in the structural transformation of the energy sector. The aim is for the CSA Energy Infrastructure Switzerland to invest CHF1.5 bn in Swiss energy infrastructure by 2019.
