Credit Suisse Asset Management Expands Its Swiss Equities Team

Zurich, June 23, 2017 Credit Suisse Asset Management is pursuing its focusing strategy consistently, and is expanding its Swiss Equities team by recruiting Christian Sauter from Deutsche Asset Management.

Credit Suisse Asset Management is one of the leading providers of Swiss equity investments, and has an impressive track record. Due to the strong demand for Swiss equity products, particularly in the Small & Mid Cap area, the Swiss Equities team is being strengthened and expanded in a lasting way.

In the person of Christian Sauter, Credit Suisse Asset Management has acquired an experienced Portfolio Manager with a long track record of successful activity in this target market. He joins Credit Suisse Asset Management from Deutsche Asset Management in Zurich. He will start on July 1, 2017, in the Swiss Small & Mid Cap Equity team as a Portfolio Manager and report to Patrik Carisch.

Christian Sauter managed Swiss equities mandates and funds for almost ten years and in addition, since summer 2015, he was the lead portfolio manager of the DWS (CH) Small and Mid-Caps Switzerland Fund. From 2006 to 2007 he worked as a Junior Portfolio Manager at Märki Baumann Privatbank. He started his portfolio management career in 2005 as a Junior Portfolio Manager at Credit Suisse. Christian Sauter studied Finance at the University of Zurich and is a CFA charterholder. His experience and expertise make him a valuable addition to our Swiss Small & Mid Cap franchise.
