

Sven Simonis appointed Head of Asset Management Germany

Zurich, March 24, 2020 – Sven Simonis has been appointed Head of Asset Management Germany, effective as of April 1, 2020. He will succeed Karl-Josef Schneiders, who will take on a new role as Senior Advisor.

Sven Simonis will assume his new position as Head of Asset Management Germany, which includes responsibility for Client Coverage in Germany and Austria, on April 1, 2020. He will play a key role in capturing the growth potential in both markets.

"We are pleased that Sven Simonis is joining Credit Suisse Asset Management to run our German business," says Michel Degen, Head of Asset Management Switzerland & EMEA, and adds: "His broad experience combined with his proven client focus will further strengthen our activities in Germany and Austria. Furthermore, he will ensure that we continue to offer high-quality solutions and services for our clients."

Sven Simonis has broad industry experience and a deep understanding of the institutional business in Germany and Austria. He will join from Deutsche Bank/DWS, where he has worked for 14 years, most recently as Head of Institutional Coverage for Germany and Austria. In that role, he successfully developed the client business strategically with respect to clients' investment and hedging needs across all asset classes. Furthermore, he has more than 20 years of experience in the asset management, banking, and advisory sector, holds a degree in law, and is a qualified attorney admitted to the German bar.

Sven Simonis is based in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, and will report to Gebhard Giselbrecht, Head of Client Coverage, and in addition to Michel Degen, Head of Asset Management Switzerland & EMEA.
