Notice is hereby given to the Shareholders of Credit Suisse (Lux) Global Robotics Equity Fund (the “Subfund”)

Given the considerable amount of subscriptions received by the Subfund following its launch, the Board of Directors had decided to limit subscriptions for the Subfund for further subscriptions to a maximum, per order, of 1 million in the reference currency of the relevant share classes as of 9 April 2018, 3.00 p.m. CET.

Due to changing market circumstances, the Investment Manager of the Subfund has now identified further investment opportunities falling within the investment universe of the Subfund. For this reason, the Board of Directors has now decided to remove the aforementioned limitation for subscriptions for the Subfund as for 10 December 2018, 3.00 p.m. CET.

Redemptions remain possible at any time.
