

INFORMATION ABOUT
2009 ESTIMATED YEAR-END
CAPITAL GAIN DISTRIBUTIONS

The funds listed below are expected to pay both long-term and short-term capital gain distributions in December 2009. The following information is based on ESTIMATES as of October 31, 2009 only and may change in the future based on portfolio, market or shareholder activity, and tax adjustments.

Before taking any action based on this information, shareholders are strongly advised to consult their own tax advisors with respect to specific tax questions, including the tax consequences of their investments in the funds.

The estimated Record, Ex-Dividend and Payable Dates are 12/15/09, 12/16/09 and 12/16/09, respectively.

Fund expected to pay year-end capital gain distributions as of October 31, 2009 is as follows:

	Short-Term Capital Gain	Long-Term Capital Gain
None

The above information represents estimated distributions only, and may change prior to the final 2009 payment date. Shareholders with tax-advantaged accounts such as IRAs, 401(k) plans and other retirement vehicles may not be required to report distributions on their tax returns. Please contact your tax advisor for specific instructions.

Actual distributions will be reported on both year-end account statements and on IRS Form 1099-DIV, both to be mailed on January 2010.

Distributions may vary based on the class of shares in which you invest. Distributions will be reinvested unless an election has been made on the account application or otherwise to receive distributions by check or by electronic transfer. Please call (877) 870-2874 to reach a service representative to answer questions about these distributions or assist with changing a distribution election. Questions regarding your specific tax circumstances, however, should be addressed to your accountant, tax or financial advisor.
