Shareholders with tax-advantaged accounts such as IRA's, 401(k) plans and other retirement vehicles may not be required to report distributions on their tax returns.

Distributions will be reported on both your year-end account statements and on IRS Form 1099-DIV, both to be mailed in January 2016.

Distributions may vary based on the class of shares in which you invest. Questions regarding your specific tax circumstances, however, should be addressed to your accountant or financial advisor.

Fund shares are not deposits or other obligations of Credit Suisse Asset Management, LLC or any affiliate, are not FDIC-insured and are not guaranteed by CS or any affiliate. Fund investments are subject to investment risks, including loss of your investment. Past performance cannot guarantee future results.

More complete information about the funds, including charges and expenses, is provided in the Prospectuses, which should be read carefully before investing. For a copy of the Prospectuses, please call 877-870-2874.
