Facts and Figures

2010
For the purposes of this report, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms “Credit Suisse Group,” “Credit Suisse,” “the Group,” “we,” “us” and “our” mean Credit Suisse Group AG and its consolidated subsidiaries. The business of Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, is substantially similar to the Group, and we use these terms to refer to both when the subject is the same or substantially similar. We use the term “the bank” when we are referring only to Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, and its consolidated subsidiaries.
At a Glance

Founded in 1856 with headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland, Credit Suisse operates as an integrated bank, with its three divisions – Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management – combining their strengths.

Today we have more than two million clients served by 50,100 employees, of which 4,690 are relationship managers. With over 550 offices and branches located in more than 50 countries, and 24 booking centers, Credit Suisse has a truly global reach.

Credit Suisse recorded a net profit attributable to shareholders of CHF 5.1 billion, driven by a net new money inflow of CHF 69 billion, resulting in total assets under management of CHF 1.25 trillion. Basic earnings per share were CHF 3.91 and the proposed cash distribution per share for the year 2010 was CHF 1.30. The tier 1 ratio of 17.2% reached at the end of 2010 is an industry-leading figure.

An Integrated Global Bank

We believe that our ability to serve clients globally with solutions tailored to their needs gives us a strong advantage in today’s rapidly changing and highly competitive marketplace.

We operate as an integrated bank, combining our strengths and expertise in private banking, investment banking and asset management to offer our clients advisory services and customized products.

Our three global divisions are supported by our Shared Services functions, which provide corporate services and business solutions while ensuring a strong compliance culture. Our global structure comprises four regions: Switzerland, Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA), Americas and Asia Pacific. With our local presence and global approach, we are well positioned to respond to changing client needs and market trends.
Regions

Switzerland
Our home market is Switzerland, where we are a leading bank for private, corporate and institutional clients. Relationship managers at more than 200 branches in the German-, French- and Italian-speaking areas offer clients a full range of private banking services. We serve corporate and institutional clients at 36 locations. Investment Banking offers a broad range of financial services to its Swiss client base, while Asset Management offers traditional and alternative investment products, and multi-asset class solutions.

Europe, Middle East and Africa
Credit Suisse is active in 26 countries across the EMEA region with offices in 78 cities. Our regional headquarters are in the UK, but we have an onshore presence in every major country in these geographic areas. The region encompasses both developed markets such as France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the UK, as well as emerging markets including Russia, Poland, Turkey and the Middle East. In 2010, we opened our first office in the Nordic region – Stockholm – and expanded our presence in South Africa.

Americas
The Americas region comprises our operations in the US, Canada, the Caribbean and Latin America. Our three divisions are strongly represented across the region. With offices in 44 cities spanning 14 countries, we offer our clients local access to our global resources in their home markets. In 2010, we enhanced our investment banking platform in Canada, and our private banking and asset management capabilities across the region.

Asia Pacific
The Asia Pacific region comprises 18 offices in 12 markets. Singapore is home to our largest private banking operations outside Switzerland. The region is also our fastest-growing private banking market globally. Our integrated banking platform has a strong presence in the region’s largest markets, such as Australia, Hong Kong and Japan, complemented by long-standing leadership in Southeast Asia and a rapidly growing franchise in China and India.
Private Banking

In Private Banking we offer comprehensive advice and a broad range of financial solutions to private, corporate and institutional clients. Private Banking comprises the Wealth Management Clients and Corporate & Institutional Clients businesses. In Wealth Management Clients, we serve over two million clients, including ultra-high-net-worth and high-net-worth individuals around the globe and private clients in Switzerland, making it one of the largest global players. Our global network comprises 48 countries with some 370 office locations – more than 130 of these located outside of Switzerland. Wealth Management Clients has approximately 4,200 relationship managers and 24 booking centers, reflecting our multi-shore strategy. Our Corporate & Institutional Clients business serves the needs of over 100,000 corporations and institutions, mainly in Switzerland, and is an important provider of financial products and services.

Investment Banking

Investment Banking provides a broad range of financial products and services, with a focus on businesses that are client-driven, flow-based and capital-efficient. Our products and services include global securities sales, trading and execution, prime brokerage, capital raising and advisory services, as well as comprehensive investment research. Clients include corporations, governments, pension funds and institutions around the world. We deliver our global investment banking capabilities via regional and local teams based in all major developed and emerging market centers. Our integrated business model enables us to gain a deeper understanding of our clients and deliver creative, high-value, customized solutions based on expertise from across Credit Suisse.

Substantial Reduction of Risk Since 2007
Risk-weighted assets is an important measure of capital usage. The Investment Bank has reduced risk-weighted assets by 38% since 2007, as part of the implementation of its client-focused, capital-efficient strategy.

1 Includes all investment grade, high yield, ABS, MBS, covered bonds, sovereign, supranational and agency debt; excludes money markets and maturities of less than 18 months. 2 Source: Dealogic.
Asset Management

Asset Management offers products across a broad range of investment classes, from alternative investments such as hedge funds, private equity, real estate and credit to multi-asset class solutions, including equities and fixed income products. The division manages portfolios, mutual funds and other investment vehicles for governments, institutions, corporations and private clients. With offices in 19 countries, we work closely with our clients around the world to develop and deliver innovative investment solutions to meet their individual needs. Our globally integrated business model allows us to cooperate effectively with our colleagues within the bank and to build long-term partnerships with external investment managers and clients.

ETF Product Range Continued to Expand in 2010

Credit Suisse continued to expand its ETF product range during the course of 2010. By year-end, the bank had 54 ETFs listed, with assets under management reaching CHF 14.6 billion, a 46% increase from the end of 2009. Credit Suisse ETFs are currently traded on the SIX Stock Exchange, Xetra, Borsa Italiana and London Stock Exchange.
Shared Services

Shared Services provides centralized corporate services and business support for the bank’s three divisions – Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management – as well as effective and independent control procedures in the following areas:

- Finance
- Legal and Compliance
- Risk Management
- Information Technology
- Talent
- Corporate Communications
- Corporate Branding
- Corporate Development
- Public Policy

Shared Services carries out its tasks from a handful of regional hubs located throughout the world.
Our Five Centers of Excellence Cover All Relevant Time Zones

Our five Centers of Excellence (CoE) – service centers supporting the bank’s three divisions as well as Shared Services – employ more than 10,000 staff. Since the first CoE was established in 2006, the CoE initiative has resulted in increased efficiency and improved productivity, benefiting the entire bank.

2. Proposal of the Board of Directors to the Annual General Meeting on April 29, 2011.
Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for the overall direction, supervision and control of Credit Suisse. The Board regularly assesses the market environment and the Group’s competitive position, reviewing and approving its strategic and financial plans.

At each meeting, the Board receives a status report on the financial results, the risk and capital situation of Credit Suisse. In addition, the Board periodically receives management information packages, which provide detailed information on the performance and financial status of the Group, as well as risk reports outlining recent developments and outlook scenarios. Management also provides the Board members with regular updates on key issues and significant events, as is deemed appropriate or requested.

The Board also reviews and approves significant changes in the Group’s structure and organization and is actively involved in projects including acquisitions, divestitures, investments and other major undertakings. The Board and its committees are entitled, without consulting with management and at the expense of the Group, to engage independent legal, financial or other advisors – as they deem appropriate – with respect to any matters subject to their respective authority. The Board performs a self-assessment once a year where it reviews its own performance and sets objectives and a work plan for the coming year.
The Board of Directors is composed as follows:

Hans-Ulrich Doerig¹ Chairman, born 1940, Swiss citizen
Urs Rohner¹,² Vice-Chairman, born 1959, Swiss citizen

Vision

Credit Suisse’s Aspiration Is to Become One of the World’s Most Admired Banks.

We believe our ability to serve clients globally with solutions tailored to their individual needs is a strong competitive advantage. To deliver customized products, comprehensive solutions and advisory services, we combine our strengths in Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management and operate as an integrated bank. Our three divisions are supported by our global Shared Services functions. They are designed to ensure effective business support and the appropriate control and supervision of business activities.

To present a distinctive, single face to clients, we run a regional structure comprising four regions – Switzerland, Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA), Americas and Asia Pacific. Our local presence ensures responsiveness to the ongoing evolution of client needs and market trends, while our global footprint positions us as a solid and trusted partner offering integrated advice and global resources.

In the face of volatile markets, our integrated business model has proven to be both resilient and flexible. It has allowed us to focus our energy and resources on our clients and help them to invest in growth and manage difficult restructuring and liquidity situations. At the same time, we have been able to capitalize on the developments of the most attractive markets, providing a solid platform for profitable growth.

Building on the momentum we have established, we are focusing on implementing our client-focused and capital-efficient integrated bank strategy, on gaining further market share and on strengthening our geographic footprint. We are also striving to derive the maximum benefits from our operational excellence and efficiency programs, as well as from our comprehensive human capital strategy, which is geared toward attracting, developing and retaining the best talent.
Corporate Governance

Credit Suisse's corporate governance complies with internationally accepted standards. We recognize its importance and know that transparent disclosures help stakeholders to assess the quality of the Group, while assisting investors in their investment decisions.

Our Corporate Governance Framework  The Board of Directors has adopted a set of corporate governance guidelines aimed at explaining and promoting our governance structure.

Code of Conduct  A Code of Conduct, establishing a common set of values across the Group and guiding our efforts to maintain the confidence of our stakeholders, is binding for our Board members and all our employees worldwide.

Shareholder Rights  We encourage investors to participate in the AGM and to execute their voting rights. To support their decisions we publish accurate and transparent reporting publications.

Managing Risk  Our Risk Management function fosters a disciplined risk culture and creates appropriate transparency providing a sound basis for management to define a suitable risk profile.

Committed to Compliance  We exercise utmost care to ensure that our employees at all times maintain the highest standards of compliance with all legal, regulatory and internal requirements.

Rewarding Excellence  We are committed to employing a responsible compensation approach that rewards excellence, ensures a prudent approach to risk-taking and aligns the employees’ interests with those of Credit Suisse to create sustainable shareholder value.

Further information on corporate governance can be found in Credit Suisse Group AG’s Annual Report 2010.
Strategy

Industry Trends and Competition
In 2010, the financial services industry experienced a volatile market environment and continued uncertainties about regulatory developments and proposals, including capital, leverage and liquidity requirements and changes in compensation practices.

In September, the Basel III framework, designed to strengthen the resilience of the sector, was announced. Under its new capital standards, banks will be required to hold more capital. In November, the G-20 endorsed Basel III and reaffirmed the view that no financial institution should be too big or too interconnected to fail. In Switzerland, the Expert Commission appointed by the Swiss Federal Council addressed the Too Big to Fail issue relating to large Swiss banks (including Credit Suisse) in October. Recommendations with regard to capital and liquidity requirements that go well beyond the minimum standards of Basel III were also put forward, as well as proposals to promote risk diversification and emergency plans to address systemic risk. Additional capital buffers through the issue of contingent convertible capital were recommended.

These new rules could enter into force at the beginning of 2012, at the earliest. The proposed regulatory measures under Basel III and Too Big to Fail are, however, designed with phase-in periods up to 2019 to ensure a sufficient transition period that does not impede the economic recovery. Other national regulators have or are in the process of putting into place additional measures largely consistent with Basel III. We hope that these regulatory changes will be implemented by national regulators in a way that contributes to a more level playing field and a stronger and more sustainable global banking system over time.

As many financial institutions returned to growth in 2010, the year was characterized by increased competitive pressure. With the US and Europe affected by ongoing sovereign debt concerns and slow economic recovery, we expect Asia and Latin America to be important growth drivers for the banking industry in the near term. In response to regulatory trends, banks are expected to shift away from proprietary trading toward client-facing business models, which will increase competition for client flows.
Group Priorities

We are confident that our strong capital position and our ability to provide clients with global integrated banking services offer a strong value proposition. Our client-focused and capital-efficient business model with its balanced portfolio of businesses has proven resilient and we have continued to gain market share across our businesses. It should allow us to benefit from a more constructive market environment, while limiting our risk exposure in down markets.

We are targeting an annual return on equity after-tax greater than 15% over the next three to five years. We aim to grow our client business through gains in market share and a stronger geographic footprint. To achieve these goals, we focus on:

Putting Clients’ Needs First  We aspire to be a reliable, flexible and long-term partner focused on clients with complex needs, such as ultra-high-net-worth individuals, companies and institutional clients. By listening to their needs and offering superior solutions, we empower them to make better financial decisions.

Attracting Top Talent  We continue to undertake efforts to attract, develop and retain top talent to deliver outstanding services to our clients. Our candidates go through a rigorous interview process, where we not only look for technical and intellectual proficiency, but for people who can thrive in and contribute to our culture.

Divisional Collaboration  We help our clients prosper by delivering the best of our products and services across our organization and divisions. In 2010, we recorded collaboration revenues of CHF 4.4 billion.

Cautious Capital and Risk Management  While the prudent risk taking is fundamental to our business as a global bank, we also maintain a conservative framework to manage liquidity and capital. As of the end of 2010, our tier 1 ratio stood at 17.2%, up from 16.3% a year earlier.

Striving for Improved Efficiency  We continue to strive for top-quartile efficiency levels, while being careful not to compromise on growth or reputation. For our core activities we target a cost/income ratio of 65%. Going forward, we will target a pre-tax income margin above 28%.
Our Understanding of Corporate Responsibility

At Credit Suisse, we believe that our responsible approach to business is a decisive factor determining the long-term success of our bank. We therefore strive to act as a good corporate citizen in every aspect of our work. This approach is founded on a broad understanding of our duties as a financial services provider and our responsibilities toward society and the environment, as well as our role as an employer. It also reflects the importance we assign to our dialogue with our stakeholders (see illustration).

In 2010, we added a multimedia dimension to our reporting by launching the Responsibility Chronicle. It contains reports, videos, podcasts and picture galleries about international projects and initiatives, which have been written or produced in a journalistic style.

Credit Suisse in the World

We have a presence in all major financial centers across the globe. With operations in over 50 countries and booking capabilities in every region, we are well positioned to deliver the advantages of our integrated business model to all our clients worldwide.

Private Banking offers holistic solutions to both onshore and offshore clients. We have established an award-winning advisory process that enables us to provide comprehensive financial products and a high level of service to private clients around the globe. Investment Banking has an international platform of services that it delivers through regional hubs, while Asset Management operates as a globally integrated network. The collaboration between our businesses enables us to offer clients around the world the combined capabilities of our integrated businesses.

Our global reach creates the basis for the generation of a geographically balanced stream of revenues and net new assets. It also allows us to capture growth opportunities wherever they exist. In 2010, we continued to strengthen our international footprint with the opening of an office in Stockholm – our first in Scandinavia – and we expanded our activities in South Africa. In India, we were granted a license to establish a bank branch in Mumbai. We also acquired stock exchange trading rights in the Philippines.
Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This report contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery in the US or other developed countries in 2011 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events.
