Zurich, March 18, 2021 – Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG today published the 2020 annual reporting suite, comprising the Annual Report and the first edition of the Sustainability Report. The Annual Report includes Credit Suisse’s audited financial statements and the Compensation Report. The launch of the Sustainability Report is a testament to the bank’s ambition to become a leading provider of sustainable solutions in the financial industry. Furthermore, Credit Suisse published the agenda for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders which will take place on April 30, 2021 in Horgen (Zurich).

All of the documents listed above are available on the Credit Suisse website.

2020 annual reporting suite and launch of the Sustainability Report
The 2020 Annual Report contains a detailed presentation of the Group’s structure, corporate governance, compensation practices and treasury and risk management framework. Additionally, it includes a review of the Group’s operating and financial results accompanied by its audited annual financial statements.

For 2020, Credit Suisse has enhanced the scope of the reporting included in the former Corporate Responsibility Report and is publishing this for the first time as the Credit Suisse Sustainability Report. It shows how Credit Suisse’s commitments and aspirations in sustainability are put into practice as a key component of the bank’s operations. The Sustainability Report provides an overview of our principal activities and milestones and includes new disclosures pursuant to the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) standards for the first time, as well as enhanced Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) disclosures. Lydie Hudson, CEO of Sustainability, Research & Investment Solutions (SRI), says: “The Sustainability Report underscores our commitment to transparency and dialogue with stakeholders. We are delighted to share with you details of our ESG strategy in the context of our enhanced efforts that started with the creation of SRI in July 2020.”

All publications are available for download as of 07:00 CET today, and hard copies can be ordered free of charge, at: www.credit-suisse.com/annualreporting.

The 2020 Annual Report on Form 20-F will be filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission and will be available for download at: www.credit-suisse.com/sec.
2021 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders
The Credit Suisse Annual General Meeting (AGM) on April 30, 2021 will be held in accordance with the requirements of Ordinance 3 of the Swiss Federal Council on measures to combat the coronavirus (COVID-19) and without the personal attendance of shareholders. Shareholders are requested to vote in advance by giving a power of attorney and voting instructions to the independent proxy. The respective deadline is April 27, 2021. Credit Suisse invites shareholders to join the AGM through a webcast on www.credit-suisse.com/agm. The voting results will also be published on www.credit-suisse.com/agm shortly after the AGM. The agenda for the 2021 AGM, published by the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG (Board of Directors), includes but is not limited to:

- Proposal for a distribution of a dividend to shareholders of CHF 0.2926 per share for the financial year 2020 with 50% being paid out of the capital contribution reserves and 50% from retained earnings.
- Proposal for the election of António Horta-Osório as a new member and Chairman of the Board of Directors for a term until the next AGM; Urs Rohner is not standing for re-election.
- Proposal for the election of Clare Brady and Blythe Masters as new members of the Board of Directors for a term until the end of the next AGM. Proposal for the re-election of the other members of the Board of Directors; Joaquin J. Ribeiro and John Tiner are not standing for re-election.
- Approval of the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board, as well as a consultative vote on the 2020 Compensation Report.

Distribution payable out of capital contribution reserves and retained earnings
As previously announced, the Board of Directors will propose to the shareholders at the AGM on April 30, 2021 a cash distribution of CHF 0.2926 per share for the financial year 2020. This is in line with our intention to increase the ordinary dividend per share by at least 5% per annum. 50% of the distribution will be paid out of capital contribution reserves, free of Swiss withholding tax and not subject to income tax for Swiss resident individuals holding the shares as a private investment, and 50% will be paid out of retained earnings, net of 35% Swiss withholding tax.

Changes to the Board of Directors
Having served the Board of Directors for the maximum standard term limit of 12 years, of which 10 years as Chairman, Urs Rohner is not standing for re-election. The Board of Directors proposes to the shareholders to elect António Horta-Osório as a new member and Chairman of the Board of Directors for a term until the end of the next AGM. Additionally, the Board of Directors puts forward proposals for the election of Clare Brady and Blythe Masters as new members of the Board of Directors for a term until the end of the next AGM. After having served the Board of Directors for 12 years, John Tiner has reached the maximum standard term limit and will therefore not be standing for re-election. Joaquin J. Ribeiro joined the Board of Directors in 2016 and will also not be standing for re-election. All other members of the Board of Directors will stand for re-election for a further term of office of one year.
Approval of the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board

In accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations, shareholders will vote separately, and with binding effect, on the overall compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board at the AGM.

Shareholders approve, on an annual basis, the compensation of the Board of Directors in a prospective vote for the period until the next ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, i.e. until the 2022 AGM. The Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve a maximum aggregate compensation for the Board of Directors of CHF 12.0 million.

Additionally, the shareholders, on an annual basis, approve the compensation of the Executive Board. Compensation consists of: fixed compensation, short-term variable incentive compensation and long-term variable incentive compensation.

For the 2021 AGM, the Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve the aggregate amount of CHF 15.7 million for short-term variable incentive compensation for the 2020 financial year in a retrospective vote and the aggregate amount of CHF 25.1 million for long-term variable incentive compensation (based on fair value at grant) for the Executive Board for the 2021 financial year in a prospective vote. Additionally, the Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve a maximum aggregate amount of CHF 31.0 million of fixed compensation for the Executive Board for the period from the 2021 AGM until the 2022 AGM in a prospective vote.

Consultative vote on the 2020 Compensation Report

Consistent with our practice in prior years, the 2020 Compensation Report, which is part of Credit Suisse Group AG’s Annual Report, will be presented to shareholders at the 2021 AGM for a consultative vote.

Invitation to the AGM and publication of agenda

The invitation and agenda for the 2021 AGM are available on the Credit Suisse website at: www.credit-suisse.com/agm.

1Q21 Earnings Release

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information
This report contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, targets or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, targets, predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements and that the COVID-19 pandemic creates significantly greater uncertainty about forward-looking statements in addition to the factors that generally affect our business. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market volatility and interest rate fluctuations and developments affecting interest rate levels, including the persistence of a low or negative interest rate environment;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of negative impacts of COVID-19 on the global economy and financial markets and the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the EU, the US or other developed countries or in emerging markets in 2021 and beyond;
- the emergence of widespread health emergencies, infectious diseases or pandemics, such as COVID-19, and the actions that may be taken by governmental authorities to contain the outbreak or to counter its impact;
- potential risks and uncertainties relating to the severity of impacts from COVID-19 and the duration of the pandemic, including potential material adverse effects on our business, financial condition and results of operations;
- the direct and indirect impacts of deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of us, sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability to achieve our strategic goals, including those related to our targets, ambitions and financial goals;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us and the adequacy of our allowance for credit losses;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, exchange rate, trade and tax policies;
- the effects of currency fluctuations, including the related impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations due to moves in foreign exchange rates;
- political, social and environmental developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity and climate change;
- the ability to appropriately address social, environmental and sustainability concerns that may arise from our business activities;
- the effects of, and the uncertainty arising from, the UK’s withdrawal from the EU;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- the risk of cyber attacks, information or security breaches or technology failures on our reputation, business or operations, the risk of which is increased while large portions of our employees work remotely;
- the adverse resolution of litigation, regulatory proceedings and other contingencies;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices and possible resulting changes to our business organization, practices and policies in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting or tax standards, policies or practices in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the expected discontinuation of LIBOR and other interbank offered rates and the transition to alternative reference rates;
- the potential effects of changes in our legal entity structure;
- competition or changes in our competitive position in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes instituted by us, our counterparties or competitors;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets; and
- other unforeseen or unexpected events and our success at managing these and the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, including the information set forth in “Risk factors” in I – Information on the company in our Annual Report 2020.
