MiFIR Article 30: Indirect Clearing of ETDs – Cost Disclosure
This Cost Disclosure statement provides information on the pricing fees associated with the clearing of exchange traded derivative transactions under MiFID II/MiFIR. The final and applicable fees are available upon request.

1. Introduction

The Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II\(^1\) ("MiFID II") and Regulation\(^2\) ("MiFIR") set out certain information that we are required to provide to our clients where we clear exchange traded derivatives for them, either directly or indirectly through an EU central counterparty that has been authorized by ESMA ("EU CCP").

References to "we" or "us" in this document are to the following entity:

- Credit Suisse AG, Sydney Branch ("CSAGSB") in relation to indirect clearing services provided by CSAGSB in its capacity as Direct Client or Indirect Client.

Under MiFID II/MiFIR, where we are providing to you services relating to indirect clearing of exchange traded derivatives through a EU CCP, acting in the capacity of either a direct client or indirect client, we must:

- offer you a choice of a basic omnibus indirect client account ("BOSA") or a gross omnibus indirect client account ("GOSA") where we act in the capacity of a direct client; and
- publicly disclose the levels of protections and costs associated with different levels of segregation; and
- describe the main legal implications and risks associated with the different levels of segregation; and
- publicly disclose the general terms and conditions under which we provide such services.

This document covers points a) and b) specifically, i.e. the disclosure of the cost/fee structure associated with the different types of segregated account structures offered by us:

- Basis Omnibus Indirect Client Account ("BOSA"); and
- Gross Omnibus Indirect Client Account ("GOSA")\(^3\).

Information on points c) and d) is disclosed in the Risk Disclosure Statements (publicly available here).

2. General information

This document should be read in conjunction with the MiFIR Article 30 Risk Disclosure Statements (available here) and the clearing agreement between you and us as set out in the Account Opening Terms and Conditions. The reason is that it is intended as additional information and support for your decision regarding the choice of account type that is best suited to your activity profile and needs.

Whilst this document shall be helpful to you when making this decision, it does not constitute legal or any other form of advice and must not be relied on as such.

3 As mentioned under point a) above, the GOSA offering is only applicable where we act in the capacity of a direct client.
You may need additional information to make your decision on which account type or level of segregation is suitable for you. It is your responsibility to review and conduct your own due diligence on the relevant rules, legal documentation and any other information provided to you. You may wish to appoint your own professional advisors to assist you with this.

3. Overview cost information

This section is intended as an overview for clients and prospective clients of the costs/fees associated with the different segregation account structures offered by us.

The main driving factors which determine and shape the cost structure when setting up, maintaining and operating the different account segregation structures are, among others, the below:

- Account type: depending on the account type clients opted for, i.e. BOSA or GOSA.
- Number of accounts: the impact on fees increases with the number of accounts per client.
- Technical setup at the CCP: set-up and maintenance cost and fees (if any and if applicable) charged by the CCP will be passed on to clients.
- Our technical setup: set-up and maintenance cost and fees as well as cost and expenses associated with the collateral management/margining will be charged to clients.

The following table summarizes the anticipated cost structure for BOSA and GOSA:
