Head of Credit Suisse Raleigh

Credit Suisse is expanding our Raleigh footprint.

By 2020, we plan to add 1,200 roles across all functions, including Finance, Operations, Technology and Risk. The jobs will be at various levels of experience with many opportunities for graduates and young professionals.

Soon, we will also offer a brand new work experience. We will complete construction on our expanded campus that will include state-of-the-art amenities, such as a health center, terrace green, outdoor dining, a gym and running trails. Our Raleigh offices will be transformed into a hub of exciting activity with two buildings featuring a smart working environment (instead of having a dedicated desk, an employee can choose a spot in the zone suitable for the type of work he or she does at any particular time).

Diversity, inclusion and philanthropy

In order to support our diverse and inclusive community, Credit Suisse Raleigh offers a number of cultural networks for veterans, Asian professionals, women, LGBT, black professionals and other groups. In addition, our employees are actively engaged in philanthropy. More than 90 percent of Raleigh employees volunteer with or make donations to local organizations, ensuring we give something back to the community in which we operate.

Our success is a result of vision, expertise and adaptability in an ever-changing environment and we are looking for talent with a desire to become our leaders of the future.
