Product description

Are you planning to procure multiple capital goods or vehicles or make investments in suitable equipment on an ongoing basis? If so, financing via a leasing framework agreement with Credit Suisse is the ideal solution for your company.

Combine your investments and benefit from our attractive terms. Your leasing specialist will be happy to help you implement your individual solution. After completing the leasing framework agreement, you can make your investments under the agreed terms efficiently and without additional negotiations. This creates planning certainty and simultaneously increases your entrepreneurial freedom.

The investment value limit with a defined investment framework is limited to 12 months. It can be requested easily and expires if not used. The agreed conditions remain valid even if the limit is not fully utilized.

Investment value limit, validity of 12 months

The book value limit does not have a time limit. It has increased requirements that make a detailed credit check necessary. The depreciation of active leasing agreements will be counted toward the available limit that can be used for new investments.

Book value limit, validity > 12 months
