Payment channels/payment requirements

Credit Suisse selects the most suitable payment channel for the processing of payment transactions. Where possible, clients' payment requirements are observed. Any additional costs that arise are charged to the client separately.

Charge options for international and foreign currency payments

- Shared charges (SHA)
- All costs debited to the beneficiary (BEN)
- All costs debited to the client (OUR)

The client pays the charges of Credit Suisse; the charges of the foreign bank are paid by the beneficiary.

All charges (Credit Suisse and third-party banks) are debited to the beneficiary. Credit Suisse applies amount-related tariffs for BEN payments.

In addition to the Credit Suisse prices, a flat-rate charge for third-party expenses is made:

- Payments in EUR to the EU/EEA CHF 18
- All other payments CHF 24

The one-time charge covers all third-party costs; no additional charges are made.

General Note

- We reserve the right to make changes both to our prices and to the services we provide
- Payments, commissions, discounts, etc. are already taken into account in these calculations
- Contact with bank clients is sometimes lost and the assets held at the bank are declared dormant as a result. The fees and costs that would usually be charged by the bank continue to apply in this case. Furthermore, the bank charges the client an appropriate amount for investigation costs incurred and for the special treatment and monitoring required by dormant assets.
- The bank's General Conditions and Conditions for Payment Transactions also apply

¹ Plus value added tax, currently 7.7% for clients domiciled in Switzerland and the Principality of Liechtenstein. Clients domiciled abroad are not subject to VAT.

² Plus any applicable postage, express and insurance charges.

³ The final decision on the type of processing is made by the bank.

⁴ Checks payable abroad that are issued neither in the corresponding national currency nor in CHF may be subject to third-party charges, which will be passed on.
