

Prepaid Card

Simply Load It and Use It Worldwide – Just Like a Credit Card

What You Need to Know about the Prepaid Card

The prepaid card from Credit Suisse¹ is accepted as a means of payment throughout the world – just like a credit card.

- The prepaid card must be loaded before use, or if you have used up all your existing credit. This may be done:
 - directly at a Credit Suisse counter;
 - by calling Credit Suisse Client Services;
 - by making a transfer from your Credit Suisse account.
- Your prepaid card lets you pay worldwide and online in over 31 million² businesses, restaurants, hotels, and online shops.
- You can also withdraw cash from more than 1.9 million² ATMs in more than 210 countries.

Requirements for Issuance of Card

- Company's operational headquarters are in Switzerland.
- Private or current account with Credit Suisse in name of the holder of the banking relationship (or company).
- Employee domiciled in Switzerland or in a bordering country.
- 1 prepaid card per employee.

Your Needs

- You are a small or medium-sized company requiring a card that your employees can use just like a credit card.
- You want to be able to process your employees' expenses simply and conveniently using a single card.

How You Benefit

- Pay worldwide and online – just like a credit card.
- Keep costs under control: Spending is limited to the credit balance loaded on the card.
