

Credit Suisse Invest Compact

The Compact investment solution

Thanks to our flexible investment solutions, you choose the scope of advice, portfolio monitoring, and investment proposals according to your personal needs. In all cases, you can count on our global financial expertise.

The Compact investment solution offers an easy and simple service for covering your basic investment needs at an attractive price. Your personal advisor supports you in all investment-related inquiries and is your point of contact for a comprehensive approach to your financial concerns. Once a year, you will discuss your investment portfolio with your advisor in order to align your investment strategy with your needs and preferences.

You will be given access to proven investment strategies. Our straightforward publications keep you updated on market developments and give you access to strategic investment ideas devised by our global team of experts.

You maintain an overview of your investments thanks to our comprehensive online banking as well as transparent reports on the performance of your investments, issued twice a year.

Your needs
