1. Introduction

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI), vide para 2.5 of the Master Circular on Loans and Advances - DBOD.No.Dir.BC. 16/13.03.00/2014-15 dated July 1, 2014 has prescribed the broad guidelines on fair practices that are to be framed and approved by the Board of Directors of all Banks. The fair practices code so framed and approved by the Board of Directors should be published and disseminated on the web-site of the company, if any, for the information of the public.

It is, and shall be the policy of CSAG to make available all financial products offered by the Company, to eligible qualified applicants, without discrimination on the basis of race, caste, colour, religion, sex, marital status, age or handicap, directly or through subsidiaries and/or associates.

CSAG's policy is to treat all the clients consistently and fairly. CSAG shall adopt all the best practices prescribed by RBI from time to time and shall make appropriate modifications, if any, necessary to this Code to conform to the standards so prescribed. The employees/representatives of CSAG will offer assistance, encouragement and service in a fair, equitable and consistent manner. CSAG will also communicate its Fair Practices Code ('FPC') to its clients by uploading the FPC on its website.

CSAG will ensure that the implementation of the FPC is the responsibility of the entire organisation. CSAG's fair lending practices shall apply across all aspects of its operations including marketing, loan origination, processing, servicing and collection activities. Its commitment to FPC will be demonstrated in terms of accountability, training, counseling, and monitoring, auditing programs and internal controls, and optimal use of technology.

The board of directors and the management team of CSAG are responsible for implementing the FPC, and also to ensure that its operations reflect its strong commitment to all the stakeholders for offering in a fair and equitable manner, the various financial services and products including lending as CSAG may provide from time to time and that all CSAG employees/representatives shall be aware of this commitment.

This Code applies to the following categories of products and services offered by CSAG (currently offered or which may be introduced at a future date)

- Loans and other products in the nature of financial assets

2. Key Commitments

The key commitments which CSAG promises to follow in its dealings with its clients are:

- a. To act fairly and reasonably in all dealings with its clients by ensuring that:
 - Its products, services, procedures and practices will meet the commitments and standards in this FPC;
 - Its products and services will meet relevant laws and regulations as applicable;
 - Its dealings with its clients will rest on ethical principles of honesty, integrity and transparency.
- b. CSAG will assist its clients in understanding how its financial products and services work by:
 - Providing information in English and assist with other languages to the best of its ability on client request;;
 - Explaining their financial implications; and
 - Providing such other information to the clients, to enable them to choose the product suitable to their needs.
- c. CSAG will make every attempt to ensure that its clients have a trouble-free experience in dealing with it; but in the case of errors or commissions and omissions, CSAG will address the matter quickly by ensuring that:
 - Mistakes will be corrected speedily;
 - Complaints will be handled speedily;
 - In case a client is not satisfied with the way a complaint is handled, CSAG will guide the client on how to take the complaint forward;
 - Reversing any charges including interest applied to a client's account due to an error or oversight on its part.

3. Sales Origination

CSAG will guide its clients in choosing products and services which meets his/her/its requirements.

- a. Before the client relationship is established, CSAG will:
 - Give the client information explaining the key features of the services and products the client has shown interest in;
 - Give information on accounts, products and services which may suit the client's needs;
 - Clearly state the information that CSAG is required to obtain from the client to fulfil its 'Know Your Client' norms and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements in force from time to time.
 - Request for additional information about the client and his/her family to build a database; but this information may be furnished by the client only if she/he wishes to do so.
 - In the event the client insist on usage of a vernacular language for correspondence, CSAG will evaluate its ability to honour the request before establishing the relationship with the client.
