Guiding you in FX

More than ever, today's traders require secure and simple to use technologies that provide quick and easy access to a wide range of execution options and algorithms. PrimeTrade FX is a multi-asset trading platform that delivers the tools you need directly to your desk.

Leading the way in algorithmic trading

Intuitive and straightforward, PrimeTrade FX provides:

- Easy trading from one screen: Execute 'Click and Deal' and algorithmic trades from the same screen.
- Unique Market Indicators: Access high-value information about current market conditions and our pricing.
- Advanced Execution Services (AES) FX: Trade using algorithms tailored to your exact instructions.
- At Best: Trade in one or two clicks and let us algorithmically devise an execution plan that seeks the best return on your flow in all market conditions.
- Futures execution: Trade a wide range of futures from the same system.
- Straight Through Processing (STP): Use fast and effortless STP on all electronic trades.
- Comprehensive support: Access help when you need it from our worldwide offices.

Providing exceptional coverage

PrimeTrade FX provides an exceptionally wide range of product and coverage choices:

- Pricing: Leading-edge pricing logic gives you competitive pricing in even the most volatile markets.
- Currency pairs: Execute trades on a large number of currency pairs.
- Streaming rates: Execute on streaming spot, forward and swap rates.
- Request for Stream (RFS):
Use RFS to execute swaps, including forward-forwards and uneven swaps.

Pointing you in the right direction

PrimeTrade FX is refreshingly easy to use:

- Execute your trade with one click.
- Set-up trade notifications by email and text message.
- Configure call alerts through pop-up, email and text message.
- Trade quickly on a number of pre-set and user-definable deal amounts.
- Execute your trade easily in base or term currency.
- Float a currency pair outside of the main window to save desktop space.
- Configure multiple portfolios of currency pairs, and change font sizes and order.
- View trades in a consolidated blotter, plus track and change algorithmic trades in flight.
- Configure, sort, filter and export trades from the blotter.
- Always get the latest version of PrimeTrade FX using our auto-upgrade function.
