

FATCA Self-Certification Form

(for entity client relationships booked in Switzerland)

A. Introduction

- All relevant FATCA forms including guidelines for the entity classification can be obtained on the Credit Suisse (CS) FATCA website: www.credit-suisse.com/fatca.
- Neither this document nor any related written or oral statements of the Bank or any of its employees can be considered as tax advice. The Bank recommends that Clients consult a qualified tax adviser in order to determine their appropriate FATCA status.
- Please be advised that forms with any corrections, amendments or deletions of the standard text will not be accepted.

B. Definition of the Declarant

The Declarant for the purpose of this form can be:

- The FATCA Account Holder which is the Contracting Partner unless he acts as:
  - a nonfinancial entity that holds assets for the benefit or account of another person as agent, custodian, nominee, signatory, investment advisor, or intermediary; or
  - a disregarded entity according to U.S. tax law.

In any of these cases, please provide us with the documentation of person(s) for which you act in such a capacity:

- for Individuals: Status Declaration Form for Individuals
- for Legal Entities: FATCA Self-Certification Form, W-8BEN-E or W-9.

Note: Documents are available on the FATCA website mentioned above

- The Controlling Person behind a FATCA Account holder that is a Passive NFFE.

D. General Certifications

1. The Declarant confirms that the information contained on this form as well as the definitions referred to herein have been reviewed and understood, and certifies that the information provided on this form is true, correct and complete.
2. The Declarant agrees to submit a new form within 30 days if any information on this form becomes incorrect.
3. By signing this form, the Declarant understands that investments in "assets which generate US source FDAP income"<sup>6</sup> will only be possible upon submission of additional documentation. Without this additional documentation, any safe-keeping accounts held under this relationship will remain blocked for investments in U.S. Securities.

4. Consent to rely on this Self-Certification for other relationships with the Bank.

Unless the box below is checked, the Contracting Party hereby agrees that the Bank may reuse and rely on this Self-Certification and any related information, including any reasonable explanations provided by the Contracting Party and/or a client facing employee of the Bank, for documenting any other relationships of the Contracting Party with the Bank. The Contracting Party understands that its consent may result in this Self-Certification being copied into the client files of other relationships that it maintains or will maintain with the Bank. If such other relationships involve other participants, e.g., account holders, authorized signatories, etc., these participants may have access to the respective client file, including the copy of this Self-Certification and may therefore infer that the Contracting Party has or had relationships with the Bank different to the relationship where they are involved.

- The Declarant hereby objects to the reuse of this Self-Certification for its other relationships with the Bank. The Declarant acknowledges that it will have to provide separate and consistent FATCA documentation for each other relationship with the Bank.

Please note that irrespective of the Declarant ticking this box or not, this paragraph 4 is without prejudice to any of the Bank's rights to exchange information according to its general conditions which remain in full force and effect, including but not limited to any rights to exchange information with other banks and legal entities of Credit Suisse Group in Switzerland.

5. The undersigned declares that they have the authority to sign on behalf of the Declarant. The provisions governing choice of law and jurisdiction in the Bank's General Conditions apply.

<sup>1</sup> The Declarant may be the Contracting Partner or a relevant third party on the relationship.

<sup>2</sup> Please note that many countries have signed a so called Intergovernmental Agreement or IGA with the United States of America, which sets forth certain requirements regarding the implementation of FATCA in each respective country. Before you complete this form, please consult the following link: www.treasury.gov/resource-center/tax-policy/treaties/Pages/FATCA-Archive.aspx to determine the IGA status of your country. Closely review Appendix II of the applicable IGA, as it may contain certain information that could directly affect your FATCA status.

<sup>3</sup> The Declarant may need to obtain its own sponsored GIIN. Please note, this is applicable to Sponsored entities formed or resident in Non-IGA or Model 2 Jurisdictions as well as in Model 1 Jurisdictions with US Reportable Accounts.

<sup>5</sup> In addition, the Declarant must provide an Owner Reporting Statement identifying the owners and their statuses and supporting (legal documents, tax forms, etc.)

<sup>6</sup> In general terms, assets which generate U.S. income under FATCA are equities of U.S. companies, as well as bonds and investment funds of U.S., and Non U.S. Issued Derivatives which reference other assets which generate U.S. income. A non-U.S. investment fund (e.g. Luxembourg SICAV) generally is not.
