

Q&A on Changes to Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) DJ-AIG Commodity Index Plus Euro/Sfr/US$

What are the changes to the funds?

The changes relate to the name and investment policy of the funds and take effect on January 29, 2010. There will be a change in the portfolio management at the same time.

What will the new names of the funds be and why are they changing?

The names of the funds are changing because the name of the underlying benchmark is changing and will be as follows:

Current name	New name
Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) DJ-AIG Commodity Index Plus (Euro)	Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) Commodity Index Plus (Euro)
Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) DJ-AIG Commodity Index Plus (Sfr)	Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) Commodity Index Plus (Sfr)
Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) DJ-AIG Commodity Index Plus (US$)	Credit Suisse Fund (Lux) Commodity Index Plus (US$)

What changes are being made to the portfolio management?

Previously, the funds were run by the following portfolio managers: Christopher Burton was responsible for commodities and Maurizio Pedrini for fixed income. For organizational reasons and simultaneously with the above changes, Christopher Burton and Andrew Karsh in New York will assume sole responsibility for the funds and take over the fixed-income portion from their colleagues in Zurich.

How will the investment policy change?

All funds will now have to hold at least 90% of their cash in US dollars. For funds where the reference currency is not the US dollar, these deposits will be hedged into the reference currency. The unhedged portion of these deposits may not exceed 10% of fund NAV.

What is Christopher Burton's and Andrew Karsh's professional background?

Christopher Burton, CFA holds the rank of director and is a portfolio manager and trader in the derivatives team and co-head of commodity portfolio management.
