Credit Suisse publishes its Annual Report 2019 and agenda for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders on April 30, 2020

Zurich, March 25, 2020 – Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG today published the 2019 annual reporting suite, comprising the Annual Report, the Corporate Responsibility Report and the publication “Corporate Responsibility – At a glance”. The Annual Report includes Credit Suisse’s audited financial statements and the Compensation Report. Credit Suisse also published the Agenda for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders which will take place on April 30, 2020 in Horgen (Zurich).

All of the documents listed above are available on the Credit Suisse website.

The Credit Suisse Annual General Meeting (AGM) on April 30, 2020 will be held in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance of the Swiss Federal Council on combatting COVID-19.

Shareholders will not be allowed to attend the event in person and are requested to vote in advance by giving a power of attorney and voting instructions to the independent proxy. The respective deadline is April 27, 2020.

Credit Suisse invites shareholders to join the AGM through webcast on www.credit-suisse.com/agm, and asks them not to travel to the venue in Horgen. Shareholders on site cannot be granted access to the venue.

The voting results will also be published on www.credit-suisse.com/agm shortly after the AGM.

The Agenda for the 2020 AGM, published by the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG, includes:

- Proposal for a distribution of a dividend to shareholders of CHF 0.2776 per share for the financial year 2019; 50% of the distribution will be paid out of capital contribution reserves, 50% out of retained earnings.
- Proposal for the election of Richard Meddings as new non-executive member of the Board of Directors for a term until the end of the next AGM.
- Proposal for the re-election of the Chairman and the other members of the Board of Directors; Alexander Gut will not stand for re-election.
- Approval of the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board, as well as a consultative vote on the 2019 Compensation Report.

Media Release

Zurich, Switzerland

Distribution payable out of capital contribution reserves

As previously announced, the Board of Directors will propose to the shareholders at the AGM on April 30, 2020 a cash distribution of CHF 0.2776 per share for the financial year 2019. This is in line with our intention to increase the ordinary dividend per share by at least 5% per annum. 50% of the distribution will be paid out of capital contribution reserves, free of Swiss withholding tax and not subject to income tax for Swiss resident individuals, and 50% will be paid out of retained earnings, net of 35% Swiss withholding tax.

Changes to the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG is nominating Richard Meddings for election as a new non-executive member of the Board of Directors at the AGM on April 30, 2020. Richard Meddings, Chairman of the UK bank TSB Bank plc, is a recognized financial expert with over 30 years of experience in the financial services sector spanning retail banking, wealth management and investment banking. Richard Meddings is expected to succeed John Tiner as Chair of the Audit Committee, subject to his election at the AGM and formal appointment by the Board.

After four years on the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group, Alexander Gut will not stand for re-election at the AGM on April 30, 2020.

Chairman Urs Rohner and the other members of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG will stand for re-election for a term until the end of the next AGM.

Having served on the Board for 11 years, and consistent with the maximum standard term limit of 12 years, Urs Rohner has confirmed to the Board a long time ago that he will not stand for re-election at next year's AGM in 2021. The Governance and Nominations Committee is leading the succession planning process for this role, which is well underway and progressing according to plan.

Approval of the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board

In accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations, shareholders will vote separately, and with binding effect, on the overall compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board at the AGM.

Shareholders approve, on an annual basis, the compensation of the Board of Directors in a prospective vote for the period until the next ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, i.e. until the 2021 AGM. The Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve a maximum aggregate compensation for the Board of Directors of CHF 12.0 million.

Additionally, the shareholders, on an annual basis, approve the compensation of the Executive Board. Compensation consists of: fixed compensation, short-term variable incentive compensation and long-term variable incentive compensation.

Zurich, Switzerland
March 25, 2020

For the 2020 AGM, the Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve the aggregate amount of CHF 22.4 million for short-term variable incentive compensation for the 2019 financial year in a retrospective vote and the aggregate amount of CHF 28.6 million for long-term variable incentive compensation for the Executive Board for the 2020 financial year (based on fair value at grant) in a prospective vote. Additionally, the Board of Directors proposes that shareholders approve a maximum aggregate amount of CHF 31.0 million of fixed compensation for the Executive Board for the period from the 2020 AGM until the 2021 AGM in a prospective vote.

Consultative vote on the 2019 Compensation Report

Consistent with our practice in prior years, the 2019 Compensation Report, which is part of Credit Suisse Group AG's Annual Report, will be presented to shareholders at the 2020 AGM for a consultative vote.

Invitation to the AGM and Publication of Agenda

The invitation and Agenda for the 2020 AGM are available on the Credit Suisse website at: www.credit-suisse.com/agm.

2019 Annual Reporting Suite

The 2019 Annual Report contains a detailed presentation of the Group's structure, corporate governance, compensation practices and treasury and risk management framework. Additionally, it includes a review of the Group's operating and financial results accompanied by its audited annual financial statements.

The 2019 Corporate Responsibility Report describes how Credit Suisse Group AG assumes its various responsibilities as a bank towards society and the environment. "Corporate Responsibility – At a glance" provides an overview of the most important processes and activities that reflect our approach to corporate responsibility.

All publications are available for download as of 07:00 CET today, and hard copies can be ordered free of charge, at: www.credit-suisse.com/annualreporting.

The 2019 Annual Report on Form 20-F will be filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission during the course of today, and will be available for download at: www.credit-suisse.com/sec.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This report contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, targets or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, targets, goals, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market volatility and interest rate fluctuations and developments affecting interest rate levels, including the persistence of a low or negative interest rate environment;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the EU, the US or other developed countries or in emerging markets in 2020 and beyond;
- the emergence of widespread health emergencies, infectious diseases or pandemics, such as COVID-19;
- the direct and indirect impacts of deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of us, sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability to achieve our strategic goals, including those related to our targets, ambitions and financial goals;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us and the adequacy of our allowance for credit losses;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, exchange rate, trade and tax policies, as well as currency fluctuations;
- political, social and environmental developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity and climate change;
- the ability to appropriately address social, environmental and sustainability concerns that may arise from our business activities;
- the effects of, and the uncertainty arising from, the UK’s withdrawal from the EU;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- the risk of cyber attacks, information or security breaches or technology failures on our business or operations;
- the adverse resolution of litigation, regulatory proceedings and other contingencies;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices and possible resulting changes to our business organization, practices and policies in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting or tax standards, policies or practices in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the expected discontinuation of LIBOR and other interbank offered rates and the transition to alternative reference rates;
- the potential effects of changes in our legal entity structure;
- competition or changes in our competitive position in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes instituted by us, our counterparties or competitors;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets; and
- other unforeseen or unexpected events and our success at managing these and the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, including the information set forth “Risk factors” in – Information on the company in our Annual Report 2019.
