

Data Protection Information

The following data protection information gives an overview of our collection and processing of your data.

Duties of disclosure upon collection of personal data in accordance with the Philippines Data Privacy Act of 2012 ("Philippines DPA")

Data privacy is important – please read this document.

The UBS entities and establishments listed in section 11 of this statement have issued this Privacy Statement in light of the enactment of the Philippines DPA, which is the new data protection and privacy regulation applicable to the Philippines.

With the following information, we would like to give you an overview of how we will process your personal data and of your rights according to data privacy laws. The details on what data will be processed and which method will be used depend significantly on the nature of your business relationship with us.

“We”, “us” and “our” as used in this statement refers to each and any of the UBS entities and establishments listed (as the context requires) as responsible for data processing in section 11 of this statement.

“You” and “your” as used in this statement refers to individuals:

- with whom we come into contact, or in respect of whom we obtain personal data, in the usual course of dealings with our current, prospective or former clients, our service providers, and our other business counterparties or transaction participants, which may include, without limitation, employees, directors, officers, beneficial owners and other personnel of such clients, service providers, business counterparties or transaction participants, in all cases outside the UBS groupⁱ (as applicable to you, “Your Organisation”) or
- who themselves are our clients.

1. What Sources and Data Do We Use?

Data from you: We process personal data about you that we obtain from you in the context of our business relationship with you and/or Your Organisation (as applicable). We do this in order to facilitate, enable and/or maintain that relationship and/or to provide services to our clients or for other reasons specified below. In addition, in carrying on our business relationship with you or Your Organisation, information may be collected about you indirectly from monitoring or other means (e.g. recording of telephone calls and monitoring e-mails). In these circumstances, the information is not accessed on a continuous or routine basis, but it may be used for compliance purposes.

Data from other sources: We also process personal data about you that we obtain from publicly accessible sources (e.g. the Securities and Exchange Commission, press including trade press or paid for content, publicly available websites and other publicly available sources of information such as sanctions lists or lists of directors disqualifications) or that is legitimately transferred to us by other companies in the UBS group or from other third parties. These may include Your Organisation as well as third parties not related to you or Your Organisation, such as settlement service providers, central securities depositories, exchanges, central clearing counterparties and other similar entities, databases, and third party service providers such as professional advisers, insurers and risk consulting firms.

Types of personal data: The types of personal data we process may include:

- personal details relating to you (name, date and place of birth, nationality, gender, domicile)
- contact details, including private and/or business phone numbers, postal and email addresses
- identification data such as passports, National Insurance or Social Security numbers, driving licence, ID cards, property register identification, social network user names, customer identifiers (CIF, IBAN/BIC), relationship identifiers (e.g. client segment and account currency), photographs
- authentication data such as sample signatures
- marital status, name of spouse, number of children (if applicable)

- tax status (e.g. tax ID)
- order data (e.g. payment data and account information)
- data from the fulfilment of our contractual obligations
- information about your financial situation (e.g. source of wealth, incomes, benefits, mortgage information, shareholdings)
- video surveillance and telephone/audio recordings
- data relating to criminal convictions and offences (including excerpts of criminal register)
- data related to designation of your status as a politically exposed person (PEP) and related information
- marketing and sales data (e.g. customer relationship documentation)
- data relating to your habits and preferences
- dietary and access requirements (e.g. for event organisation purposes)
- data from your interactions with us, our branches, our internet websites, our apps, our social media pages, meetings, calls, chats, emails, interviews and phone conversations
- documentation data (e.g. file notes or meeting minutes from a consultation, client needs and product usage)
- data relating to your current and past professional roles and employment, and education (e.g. corporate title, membership of professional associations or bodies, career histories or biographies, job function, knowledge and experience in investment matters, qualifications and skills)
- other data similar to the broad categories mentioned above.

2. What Do We Process Your Data for (Purpose of Processing) and On What Legal Basis?

We process your personal data for one of the following reasons.

a. Due to legal obligations

We are subject to various legal and regulatory obligations, including without limitation prudential and conduct regulation of banks and investment firms, as applicable, regulation of financial markets, compliance with any court orders, investor protection regulations, securities regulations, laws relating to money laundering, terrorism finance, sanctions and any tax laws. The purposes of processing may include:

- identity checks, fraud and financial crime and market abuse prevention or detection. If fraud is detected, Your Organisation, or individuals connected to it or you could be refused certain services, finance
- fulfilling control and reporting obligations under applicable financial regulations including securities regulations
- fulfilling requirements related to our licences and regulatory permissions
- complying with investor protection or conduct of business regulation (such as carrying out suitability or appropriateness assessments)
- complying with regulatory record keeping obligations
- complying with regulatory obligations in relation to measuring and managing risks within the UBS group.

b. For purposes of legitimate interests

We may process your personal data, for the purposes of the legitimate business and other interests pursued by us or a third party, in:

- developing, deploying and supporting our products and services
- developing and furthering our business and business relationships, and keeping our clients and other stakeholders satisfied
- protecting our businesses and the integrity of the financial markets
- managing risk and securing our systems, assets, infrastructure and premises
- exercising and defending our legal rights and position anywhere in the world
- complying with legal and regulatory obligations and cooperating with regulatory, judicial and other authorities and bodies around the world
- supporting other UBS companies in pursuing the above interests
- mergers, acquisitions and re-organizations including by providing information to future purchasers or transferees

The purposes for which we may process your personal data (and such processing may involve sharing data between members of UBS group and/or external parties) in connection with the above interests include the following:

- carrying on business relationships with clients and other parties
- providing services to clients
- due diligence in relation to transactions members of UBS group are involved in
- performing obligations and exercising rights under and otherwise carrying out contracts, or taking pre-

- contractual measures with Your Organisation or a third party
- management of the businesses and further development of the services and products of the UBS group
- reviewing and optimizing procedures for needs assessment for the purpose of direct client discussions
- marketing or market and opinion research
- obtaining personal data from publicly available sources for client acquisition purposes
- compliance with licencing, permission and/or licencing exemption requirements and regulatory requests or guidance related to such licences, permissions or exemptions
- compliance with, applicable laws, regulations and judicial orders outside European Union and European Union member states
- compliance with regulatory guidance, policy statements, best practice and associated policy requirements and controls in connection with the carrying on business
- facilitation of and responding to, regulatory requests and supervisory visits, and otherwise acting in open and collaborative manner with competent regulatory authorities
- prevention of and investigations related to financial crime, including fraud, financing of terrorism and money laundering, and compliance with sanctions, including know your customer (KYC) and regular politically exposed persons (PEP) screening
- asserting legal claims and defences in legal disputes
- carrying out conflict checks
- handling client complaints
- warehousing appropriate information within a single jurisdiction in order to co-ordinate the services and business activities of the UBS group and satisfying other administrative needs across UBS group
- facilitating operational actions in connection with our business relationships (e.g. processing of payments, billing)
- validating the authority of signatories (e.g. when concluding agreements and transactions)
- risk control across UBS group
- consulting with credit rating agencies to investigate creditworthiness and credit risks where we may have an exposure to you
- securing and operating UBS group's IT systems
- video surveillance and measures to protect the rights of an owner of premises to keep out trespassers and to provide site security (e.g. access controls).

c. For fulfilment of contractual obligations

We may process your personal data in order to maintain our business relationship with you in accordance with our legal agreement(s) with you. Such processing may take place in order to carry out obligations or exercise rights we may have pursuant to the legal agreement(s) with you, to take steps necessary in order to conclude a legal agreement with you or to take other steps at your or your representative's request prior to entering into a legal agreement with you. If you are our client, the level and nature of processing of your personal data that we may carry out pursuant to this paragraph will likely depend on the specific product or service to be provided to you (and can include needs assessments and other assessments to provide advice and support to you, as well as to carry out transactions contemplated in, or necessary to fulfil, such legal agreement).

d. As a result of your consent

There may be circumstances where we ask for your consent to process your personal data. As long as you have granted us this consent, this processing is legal on the basis of that consent. You can then withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Data Protection Office (see Section 11 below). This also applies to withdrawing your consent that was given to us before the Philippines DPA came into force, i.e. before September 9, 2012. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the legality of data processing carried out prior to withdrawal. However, this may affect our ability to provide you with our services, or maintain our business relationship with you.

3. Who Receives My Data?

The following paragraphs set out details of the recipients or categories of recipients to which we transfer your personal data.

a. The UBS group

We will share or otherwise process your personal data with entities in the UBS group, for example:

- in connection with any services offered or provided by us or any other member of the UBS group
- to facilitate carrying on the business of the UBS group and providing services to clients on a global basis
- for risk control including internal approvals processes

- to warehouse appropriate information within a single jurisdiction in order to co-ordinate the services and business activities of the UBS group
- to pass on information about you to any members of the UBS group in connection with any services which we think you or Your Organisation may be interested in
- in connection with financial or regulatory reporting purposes.

b. External recipients of data

We may transfer personal data about you:

- to public entities and institutions (e.g. regulatory, quasi-regulatory, tax or other authorities, law enforcement agencies, courts, arbitrational bodies, fraud prevention agencies)
- to other credit and financial service institutions or comparable institutions in order to carry on a business relationship with you or Your Organisation (depending on the contract, e.g. correspondent banks, custodian banks, brokers, securities exchanges, credit rating agencies)
- to third parties in connection with transactions that members of UBS group are involved in (e.g. correspondent banks, brokers, exchanges, central clearing counterparties, depositaries, trustees, trade repositories, processing units and third-party custodians, issuers, investors, prospective buyers and other transaction participants and their representatives)
- to prospective buyers or transferees as part of a sale, merger, acquisition, re-organisation or other disposal of any of our business or assets
- to a natural or legal person, public authority, regulatory agency or body for which you have given us your consent to transfer personal data to
- to professional advisors including law firms, accountants, auditors and tax advisors
- to insurers
- to service providers and agents appointed by us for the purposes given. These are companies in the categories of IT services, logistics, printing services, telecommunications, advice and consulting, and sales and marketing and translation services.

4. Will Data Be Transferred to a Third Country or an International Organization?

In certain circumstances, we may transfer your data to another country, which may be outside the Philippines. You understand that the data protection legislation outside the Philippines may not give you as much protection as the data protection legislation the Philippines.

For transfers to countries outside the Philippines where the level of protection has not been recognised as adequate under the Philippines DPA, we will rely on a derogation applicable to the specific situation (e.g. if the transfer is necessary to perform our contract with you such as when making an international payment) or on your consent or implement contractual clauses to ensure the protection of your personal data.

Please contact our Data Protection Office if you would like to request to see a copy of the specific safeguards applied to the export of your information. Contact details are provided in Section 11 below.

5. For How Long Will My Data Be Stored?

We will process and store your personal data, at least, for the period equal to a term of our agreement(s) with you. We may need to process and store your personal data after the expiration of such time in order to comply with our legal obligations, initiate, defend or any take any other action in relation to the legal proceedings or as long as it is lawful for us to do so. It should be noted here that our business relationships are often long-term relationships, which are set up with you or Your Organisation on the basis of periods of years.

We will normally retain your records for a minimum of ten years to comply with regulatory and contractual requirements unless there is a particular reason to hold the records for longer, including legal hold requirements (e.g. for the purpose of legal proceedings), which require us to keep records for an undefined period of time.

6. What Data Privacy Rights Do I Have?

In relation to your personal data, and to the extent permitted under the Philippines DPA, you have the right:

- to request access to your personal data
- to request the rectification of inaccurate or incomplete personal data

- to request deletion of your personal data
- to request the restriction of the processing of your personal data
- to data portability (i.e. to request to transmit your personal data to another data controller via automatic means).

In addition to the above rights, you have the right to object at any time to:

- the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes, and profiling to the extent related to direct marketing; and
- to the extent permitted under the Philippines DPA, to the processing of your personal data for the reasons set out in section 2.b of this statement (including profiling for these purposes).

To exercise any of the above rights you do not need to use a particular form but you should write to our Data Protection Office in accordance with section 11 of this statement. We will then assess and respond to your request to exercise your rights.

Please note that some of the above rights are subject to limitations in some situations, and that the exercise of the above rights may affect our ability to continue a business relationship with you or Your Organisation.

If applicable, you also have a right to make a complaint to the competent supervisory authority, which is the National Privacy Commission in the Philippines.

You may also withdraw consent granted to us for the processing of your personal data at any time by contacting the Data Protection Office (see Section 11 below). Please also see section 2.d of this privacy statement for further details on consent.

7. Am I Obligated to Provide Data?

In the context of our relationship, you may need to provide certain personal data that is required for accepting and carrying out a business relationship, fulfilling contractual obligations or that we are legally obliged to collect. Without this data, we may not be in a position to enter into a legal agreement, provide services, or initiate or maintain a business relationship.

For example, and where applicable to our business relationship, anti-money laundering regulations may require us to identify you on the basis of your identification documents before establishing a business relationship and to collect and put on record data including your name, place and date of birth, nationality, address and identification details for this purpose. In order for us to be able to comply with these statutory obligations, you must provide us with the necessary information and documents in accordance with such regulations, and to immediately disclose any changes over the course of our relationship. If you do not provide us with the necessary information and documents, we cannot enter into or continue the business relationship you require.

8. Will Profiling Take Place?

We process some of your data automatically, with the goal of assessing certain personal aspects (profiling). For example, we use profiling in the following ways:

- due to legal and regulatory requirements, we are required to combat money laundering, terrorism financing, fraud, assess risk and offences that pose a danger to assets. Data assessments (including on payment transactions) are also carried out for this purpose. At the same time, these measures also serve to protect you or Your Organisation
- we use assessment tools in order to be able to specifically notify you and advise you or Your Organisation regarding products. These allow communications and marketing to be tailored as needed, including market and opinion research.

9. We May Collect Biometric Data and other sensitive personal data From You

Biometric data is classified as sensitive personal data under the Philippines DPA. Therefore, your explicit consent will be required in a separate process to use your Touch ID or other biometric identification to access certain applications. If we need to collect other sensitive personal data from you, such your religion information as provided in a copy of your ID card, we will require explicit consent from you.

10. Changes to this Privacy Statement

This privacy statement takes effect on 2nd November 2023. We may need to make changes to it in the future. We will post updates to this privacy statement to our website.
